Office of the Legislative Counsel

Monday - 19 May 1958

Mr. William Darden, Staff Member of the Senate Armed Services Committee called and said that Senators Russell (D., Ga.) and Saltonstall (R., Mass.) had talked with the Director about a meeting with the CIA Subcommittees of the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations Committees. Mr. Darden queried whether the Director would be available at 3 o'clock on Tuesday or alternatively on either Wednesday or Thursday. Mr. Darden was advised that we would check or call him back. [redacted] in the Director's office was advised of Mr. Darden's call. STAT
He will talk with the Director and advise us in the morning.
